NAIDOC WEEK GRANTS AVAILABLE TO LOCAL ORGANISATIONS

Member for Murray Austin Evans is encouraging eligible organisations in Murray to apply for grants supporting NAIDOC Week 2018 activities.

The grants of up to $3,000 are available to grass roots organisations to run local events marking NAIDOC Week, the annual celebration of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander cultures.

Mr Evans said this was a great initiative from the NSW Government.

“NAIDOC Week is a unique opportunity for our region to come together and recognise the culture, history and achievements of our First Australians and their contributions to this country,” Mr Evans said.

Minister for Aboriginal Affairs Sarah Mitchell said that she looks forward to seeing how communities across the state use the NAIDOC Week grants.

“I encourage local organisations in the Murray electorate and right across the state to apply for grant funding to host events during this NAIDOC Week that celebrate the important place Aboriginal people play in our communities,” she said.

Grant applications close Friday 20 April 2018.

For more information and how to apply, visit the Aboriginal Affairs NSW website at https://www.aboriginalaffairs.nsw.gov.au/grants/naidoc-week-grants.
