Media Release – General Manager’s Resignation

Balranald Shire Council Administrator, Mike Colreavy has announced the resignation of the Council’s General Manager, Oliver McNulty who will depart the Balranald position on 26 August.

Mr McNulty has accepted a senior position with the City of Yarra in Melbourne, locating him closer to his immediate family members, who are now Melbourne based.

Mr Colreavy said that Mr McNulty would be missed, having already made his mark on the Balranald Shire, but it is understandable that family priorities should always come first.

Mike Colreavy
Administrator
Balranald Shire Council
