The purpose of this policy is to provide a consistent set of guidelines to ensure legal and appropriate Councillor Access to Council records, information and staff that may assist them in undertaking their responsibilities as elected representatives.

This policy defines appropriate interactions between Councillors, employees and contractors of Balranald Shire Council (BSC). It defines potential, perceived and actual improper or undue influence or direction by Councillors to staff and ensures that risks associated with improper or undue influence are mitigated.

Scope

This policy applies to Councillors, all staff and contractors of BSC

Policy Content Access to Council Records by Councillors

Councillors are entitled to access all council files, records or other documents in accordance with the Government Information Public Access Act 2009 (GIPA) and as identified in Councils GIPA Publication Guide, or which relate to a matter currently before the Council.

Councillors can request access to Council documents relating to their civic duties from the General Manager.

Councillors who have a personal (as distinct from civic) interest in a document of Council have the same rights as any other person.

Councillors must not release personal information about a third party except in accordance with the provisions of the Privacy and Personal Information Act.

The Government Information Public Access Act 2009 (GIPA) also include provisions for a member of the public to a general right of access to Council documents.

The General Manager, public officer or a person identified by the General Manager shall keep a record of all requests by councillors for access to information (other than those listed in the GIPA Act or GIPA Publication Guidelines or by a Notice of Motion at a Council meeting).

Use of Information by Councillors

Reference should be made to Council's Code of Conduct and Statement of Business Ethics which offer specific guidance to Councillors in dealing with information provided to them in the course of their civic duties.

It is recognised that Councillors have a role both as a member of the governing body of the Council and as an elected person and importantly it recognises the difficulty for Councillors to reconcile the two areas of responsibility when dealing with Council information and documents. It notes that while it is desirable in the public interest to maintain open government, not all information available to Councillors is available to members of the public.

Councillors are made privy to information of a confidential nature the disclosure of which is specifically prohibited in certain circumstances.

Councillors must undertake to protect confidential information and only use confidential information for the purpose it was intended. Confidential information gained through your official position should not be used for the purpose of securing a private benefit for yourself or any other person.

Confidential information must not be used with the intention to cause harm or detriment to Council or any other person or body and information discussed during a confidential session of a Council meeting must not be disclosed.

The right of Councillors to have access to records is for the purpose of exercising the office of Councillor. It does not carry with it the right to disclose any information obtained by a Councillor to another person, unless it is already in the public domain. A Councillor has no authority to release documents on behalf of Council.

The Chair of BSC shall not cause the by-passing of the general access provisions by providing to another Councillor information made available through the Chairs' role.

Councillors shall not cause the by-passing of GIPA provisions by providing to a member of the public information made available to Councillors as an elected representative.

The General Manager will provide further guidance and assistance to Councillors in determining whether a document is confidential and/or not to be released.

Interaction between Councillors and Staff

The General Manager is responsible to the Council for the performance of all staff and day to day management of Council. Therefore, it is appropriate that all requests for information and approaches to staff on matters not generally available to the public and which are outside the forum of Council and Committee meetings, be directed to the General Manager or to person(s) nominated by the General Manager.

Only the General Manager can provide advice to Councillors and any other officer nominated by the General Manager, from time to time.

Requests for actions, services or maintenance should be made by emailing council@balranald.nsw.gov.au or by contacting a Customer Service area who will record the request in Councils Customer Request Management system.

When a detailed report is required, a Notice of Motion should be made to Council.

If a Councillor is concerned about any refusal to provide information, the matter should be raised with the General Manager. If the Councillor is still dissatisfied they should request the information by way of a Question on Notice to the Council.

Councillors shall not approach members of staff directly for information or advice, other than public contact staff and then only for routine administrative matters.

The Chair may communicate with Council staff in the course of fulfilling the Chair's responsibilities and the General Manager is responsible for keeping the Chair informed of all matters relevant to those responsibilities.

Staff members will not approach Councillors directly on matters other than routine administrative matters. Any other contact with Councillors must be arranged through the General Manager.

Staff members will not lobby Councillors on policy issues.

Councillors must not attempt to direct or influence staff as to the performance of their work.

Councillors must not request staff to undertake work of a personal nature for them or any other person.

Councillor Access to Council Offices

As elected members of the Council, Councillors are entitled to have unimpeded access to all civic areas, the Council Chamber and meeting rooms.

Councillors who are not in pursuit of their civic duties only have the same rights of access to Council buildings and premises as any other member of the public.

Councillors may not enter "staff only" areas unless with the permission of the General Manager.

The General Manager provides secretarial services and will instruct staff to provide secretarial support on particular matters as required.

Responsibility and Accountability

Councillors and staff are responsible for ensuring that any breaches of this policy are reported to the General Manager.

Where the breach relates to the conduct of a Councillor, the General Manager is responsible for immediately reporting the matter to the Mayor and where the breach relates to the conduct of the Mayor, the General Manager is responsible for reporting this to Council.

Where the breach relates to the conduct of staff the General Manager is responsible for taking appropriate disciplinary action if the breach is proven.

Inappropriate Interactions

The Council has determined that the following interactions are inappropriate:

- councillors approaching members of staff for information on sensitive or controversial matters, other than the General Manager, Managers or other staff nominated by the General Manager and as advised to councillors
- members of staff approaching councillors directly other than via the General Manager or their Manager on staffing or political issues
- councillors approaching staff outside the council building or outside hours of work to discuss Council business
- staff refusing to give information which is available to other councillors to a particular councillor because of the staff member's or councillor's political views
- councillors entering general staff only areas with the exception of the intention to visit the office of the General Manager
- staff being asked to answer questions or provide documents to councillors who are overbearing or threatening
- councillors directing or pressuring staff in the performance of their work, or recommendations they should make
- staff providing advice to councillors without recording or documenting the interaction as they would if the advice was provided to a member of the community.
